

THE NATURE FOUNDATION OF WILL COUNTY

DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

The Nature Foundation of Will County (Foundation) is committed to respecting the privacy of its donors. The Foundation has developed this Privacy Policy to assure donors that their intentions will be honored, and their information will not be shared with any third party.

I. AWARENESS

The Foundation is concerned about the protection of donor privacy and the desire to keep personal information confidential. Donors may remove their name from the Foundation's mailing list at any time.

II. INFORMATION COLLECTED

The Foundation gathers and maintains the following information about its members and donors:

- Contact information such as name, address, phone number, email address.
- Information about how donors heard about the Foundation.
- Any other information that is relevant to the donor relationship with the Foundation.

Individuals who are contributors (and have opted in to receive mailings) may receive fundraising appeals, periodic emails, invitations to events, and other mailings related to programs and services.

III. HOW INFORMATION IS USED

The Foundation uses donor information to help complete a donation transaction, communicate back to donors and to update its donor database. The Foundation will not sell, rent, or trade donor personal information to other organizations. Routinely, donor names are published in lists as an acknowledgement of gratitude for support. However, the Foundation respects anonymity if donors prefer not to be listed as a donor to the Foundation. Email addresses are collected for the purpose of sending out program information, campaign solicitations, and other event-related communications. The Foundation will not sell, rent, trade or otherwise reveal email addresses to any entity.
